Lesson 6 高铁上还可以点外卖

课文 1

Li Wen: Jiayue, it's time to buy our tickets to Shanghai. How do you want to get there?
Bai Jiayue: I've never taken a high-speed train before. How about we go by high-speed train?
Li Wen: No problem. There are many high-speed trains from Beijing to Shanghai—it's very convenient.
Bai Jiayue: Great! How do we buy the tickets?
Li Wen: We can buy them on a mobile App. Give me your passport, and I'll get them for you.
Bai Jiayue: I've heard about the high-speed train for a long time. I'm glad I can finally take it.
Li Wen: It's fast and comfortable—you're going to love it.

课文 2

Liu Ming: Once we pass the intersection up ahead, we'll reach the high-speed train station.
Bai Jiayue: I see it. We'll be there soon. There are a lot of cars on this road. Please drive carefully.
Liu Ming: Okay. You still have an hour, so you probably won't be late.
Bai Jiayue: I've noticed that this road not only has heavy traffic but also many traffic lights.
Liu Ming: Yeah, I took this road once before and never used it again afterward.
Bai Jiayue: Then why did you take it today?
Liu Ming: I got anxious and took a wrong turn. If I hadn't, we would've arrived twenty minutes earlier.

课文 3

Bai Jiayue: Li Wen, my earphones have run out of battery. Do you have a power bank?
Li Wen: Yes, I keep all these daily essentials in my bag. Let me get it for you.
Bai Jiayue: There are more and more people ahead of us.
Li Wen: Right, we're about to enter the high-speed train station. Let's stay together and don't get separated.
Bai Jiayue: Okay, could you check if we've got all the high-speed train tickets?
Li Wen: No need for a paper ticket. You can just scan your passport to enter.
Bai Jiayue: Where do we do the ticket check?
Li Wen: The ticket gates are on the second floor. We'll take the elevator up in a moment.

课文 4

During the vacation, I went to Beijing and also visited Shanghai. I took the high-speed train from Beijing South Railway Station to Shanghai. Sitting on the train felt just like sitting on my sofa at home. It's quiet and comfortable. When I got tired of sitting, I stood up for a while; when I got hungry, I ordered takeout. Yes, you heard that right—you can order takeout on a high-speed train! Just select your station and the food you want, and you don't need to get off the train when it arrives—the staff will bring it to you. Now, more and more people prefer traveling by high-speed train. When my parents come to China for a visit, I'll definitely take them on a high-speed train ride.

Lesson 7 那条裙子比短裤更好看

课文 1

Wang Yixue: We bought this bicycle when Xiaoxue was eight years old. It's starting to look a bit old now.
Liu Ming: Yeah, she's grown taller, and the bike is too small for her now.
Wang Yixue: A new bicycle shop just opened in the mall. Let's get her a new one.

Liu Ming: Sure. Let's take Xiaoxue with us so she can try it out.
Wang Yixue: Let's go today, then! I also want to check out some clothes. How should we get there?
Liu Ming: The mall isn't far—we can walk there.

课文 2

Wang Yixue: Do you think these yellow shorts look good on me?
Liu Ming: The size fits well, but I think that skirt looks better than the shorts.
Wang Yixue: The skirt is a bit more expensive than the shorts.
Liu Ming: How much more expensive?
Wang Yixue: The skirt is 480 yuan, and the shorts are 400 yuan.
Liu Ming: The skirt isn't much more expensive than the shorts. Let's get the skirt—you look better in skirts.
Wang Yixue: I'll look around a bit more before deciding. Look, there's a "Buy Two, Get One Free" offer over there!

课文 3

Store Clerk: These watermelons are big and fresh. Free if they aren't sweet!
Wang Yixue: The watermelons look great. How much are they?
Store Clerk: Five yuan per kilo. Here, try this piece of chilled watermelon—it's super sweet!
Wang Yixue: It really is sweet! Please help me pick a bigger one, and I'll take two jin of bananas as well.
Store Clerk: That's 58.5 yuan in total.
Wang Yixue: I'm buying so much. Can you give me a discount?
Store Clerk: Make it 55 yuan. That's the best I can do.

课文 4

These past few days, while watching TV in our new home, we discovered another problem. Now that the house is bigger, the TV looks a bit too small. We bought it when we got married, so I think it's time for an upgrade. I've been shopping for TVs online all day, and to my surprise, they're not only more affordable but also much smarter—some even turn on when you talk to them. I found several I really like, but I'll let Yixue make the final call tonight.

Lesson 8 今天我出院了

课文 1

Li Wen: Tianzhong, I've seen you at the gym quite often lately.
Chen Tianzhong: I come here to run for an hour every afternoon.
Li Wen: That's a great exercise habit.
Chen Tianzhong: I've gained more than ten jin this year. I really can't afford to get any fatter—it's not very healthy.
Li Wen: I often play badminton after class. Why don't you join us sometime?
Chen Tianzhong: I know, but you guys are way too good. I'm not very good at it.
Li Wen: That's okay. I can teach you.

课文 2

Annie: What's wrong? You don't look very well.
Chen Tianzhong: My ear has been hurting since I went swimming yesterday.
Annie: Maybe you've caught a cold. Do you have a fever?
Chen Tianzhong: I think I have a mild fever.
Annie: Let me take you to the hospital so the doctor can check it.
Chen Tianzhong: I'll go home and take a nap first. Maybe I'll feel better after some rest.
Annie: Alright, but if you still have a fever this afternoon, you must see a doctor.
Chen Tianzhong: Thanks for your concern. I'll take care of myself.

课文 3

Annie: Why were you suddenly hospitalized? Everyone's really worried about you.
Chen Tianzhong: My leg has been hurting for weeks. The doctor said I need to stay in the hospital for some tests.
Annie: You don't look like a patient at all.
Chen Tianzhong: I know, I rarely get sick—the last time I came to the hospital was nearly two years ago.
Annie: You run every day and sometimes go swimming. Could it be that you've been exercising too much?
Chen Tianzhong: The doctor thinks that might be the case, but we will have to wait for the test results to be sure.
Annie: Don't worry! Just follow the doctor's advice and get plenty of rest—your leg will soon recover.
Chen Tianzhong: Thanks. I always feel much happier when someone comes to visit me.

课文 4

Today I was discharged from the hospital. Before leaving, the doctor prescribed several kinds of medicine and explained how to take them. One needs to be taken once every night before going to bed, while the others should be taken three times a day after meals. In addition to taking medicine, the doctor told me that getting plenty of rest is the most important. I've kept that in mind and will take good care of myself after returning home. I hope my leg gets better soon.

Lesson 9 打不好没关系

课文 1

Li Wen: Jiayue, I'm sorry I forgot to return your campus card yesterday.
Bai Jiayue: That's OK. How did you get here so quickly?
Li Wen: I was playing basketball on the court. As soon as you called, I ran right over.
Bai Jiayue: I heard that you guys have been practicing every day for the sports meet.
Li Wen: Yes, we have! Are you planning to take part in it?
Bai Jiayue: I'm thinking about joining the tennis competition. I've been practicing a lot lately.
Li Wen: Great! I'll come and watch your match then.

课文 2

Li Wen: Jiayue, why don't you come and play badminton with us?
Bai Jiayue: I haven't played in years. I've almost forgotten how.
Li Wen: It's not a competition. Don't worry if you're not good at it.
Bai Jiayue: But there are so many classmates playing, I'd feel embarrassed if I kept missing the shuttlecock.
Li Wen: You're overthinking it! We're just playing for exercise.
Bai Jiayue: I'd better practice on my own first. I'll join you guys next week.
Li Wen: I'll be playing badminton with Tianzhong. You can come and practice with us.

课文 3

Chen Tianzhong: The soccer game has started! Hurry up and come watch!
Li Wen: You guys go ahead and watch. There's some beer and drinks in the fridge—I'll grab them.
Bai Jiayue: What's wrong with them today? They just can't seem to score!
Chen Tianzhong: Several veteran players are sick. The new players are too nervous—it's their first big game.
Li Wen: Yeah, since the main players aren't playing, everyone else seems affected.
Bai Jiayue: The more I watch, the more anxious I feel. I'm done watching. Just tell me the score later.
